ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Whilst we would like to be able to assist all FNQ disadvantaged youth with their educational, artistic or sporting pursuits, we have a limited pool of funds available and as such need to apply the following limitations, and terms and conditions.

- Applicants parents must reside in our regions; Cardwell north to Thursday Island and west to Normanton.
- Applicants up to 24 years of age. Students may re-apply each year.
- Students must declare any income (if they receive a youth allowance, Austudy, Abstudy or have part-time work) and provide documentation to prove such.
- Applicants must show proof of both parents income, including a detailed Income Tax Return (not just a notice of assessment). Applicants must advise who is providing financial support to them. The above information is confidential and shredded once the application has been assessed.
- Applicants must attach references from Teachers, School Principal, Lecturers or Coaches to support their application.
- If applying to attend 1st year studies, the applicant must show year 12 results and OP/ATAR score.
- The applicant must show proof of university results if already attending university.
- Applicant must supply a presentable photo of themselves (no cropped group photos)
- Tertiary scholarships are available, however we DO NOT assist with HECS-HELP fees.
- All fund recipients are required to provide a feedback report as to how the funds were utilised within six months of receiving the funds. Any further communication and/or photos are also greatly appreciated and may be used by the Fund for promotional purposes.
- Applications will not be returned to Applicants. We reserve the right to delete/destroy part or all of applications received a reasonable time after the assessment period to which the application applies. This will be done to ensure privacy and confidentiality.
- Funds must be spent on the agreed project, event or activity. Any unspent fund are to be returned to the FNQ Youth Assistance Fund within the financial year they were granted.
- The Applicant must acknowledge the funding provided by the FNQ Youth Assistance Fund in any media coverage, social platforms or promotional activities related to the project, activity or event for which funding has been received.
- Provide the Fund with a copy of any documentation produced as a result of the project, event or activity.

The Fund will endeavour to assist applicants according to need and the availability of funds on hand at the time of application. As much information as possible must be provided to support the Applicant in meeting the Eligibility Criteria of the Fund.
